

Figure 3. Map with the SMA satellite tag tracks (preliminary strait line tracks). Orange dots represent tagging locations and the arrows represent the strait line tracks for the pop-up locations. The map shows information from the tags acquired and deployed directly with the ICCAT/SRDGP project, as well as other tags deployed by participating national scientists and institutes with additional funds from other sources and projects that will also contribute for the final analysis (see Table 4 for details).